About CIB

CIB is a well-recognized Islamic banking certification, offered by AIMS since year 2005. It is a career oriented certification, designed by leading shariah scholars and practitioners. It will be of immense help regardless of whether you are banking professional or a recent graduate. It is well-recognized among the financial institutions, and it aims to hone your Islamic banking skills that employers actually seek.

- You will have a holistic understanding of shariah compliant services.
- You may skillfully manage Islamic financial products, offered by Islamic banks.
- You may perform key roles in the establishment of an Islamic bank, in any part of the world.

Program Structure

To become a CIB, you will have to study three Islamic banking courses, each worth three (3) credit hours. Each course encompasses a specific body of knowledge and practice that prepare students for rewarding positions.

CIB Coursework

Islamic Economic and Financial System
Islamic Modes of Finance
Islamic Commercial and Investment Banking

Accreditation

- CIB is awarded by AIMS - a CPD accredited and UKRLP registered institute. CPD accreditation assures that AIMS' practical and methodical approach is focused to improve professional development.
- CIB Total Qualification Time (TQT) is 135 hours and it is designed as per Ofqual Level-4 standards of Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF).
- CIB is also recognized by several international bodies as nine (9) credit hours of graduate studies.

Who Should Attend?

- All those bankers you wish to leave conventional banking behind and enter the world of Islamic banking.
- Those who just graduated will also find direction by specializing in this niche.

Why Islamic Finance?

Islamic banking and finance is the fastest expanding industry of over 1.2 trillion US dollars. Its growth rate is 20% a year and demand for the qualified professionals is higher than ever. Due to its ethical and assets-based nature, it is widely expanding globally and the market needs 15,000+ professionals a year. It is also becoming popular among non-Muslims, due to condemnation of Usury, which is also strictly forbidden in Judaism, Christianity, Buddhism, and Hinduism.

Our Students Say!

Certified Islamic Banker (CIB) sets a very good knowledge and understanding for anyone willing to join this growing industry. Achieving this Islamic banking certification would also be great accomplishments for those who has the experience in this field but lacks formal qualifications. AIMS' teaching methodology is starkly different from conventional models of teaching. Even though classes are held online, each session is highly interactive. This is seldom achieved by online institu-
